BECKHAM OPENS

HIS CAMPAIGN

The feature of Mr. Beckham's speech this afternoon was his terrific attack on Representative Stanley in reply to Mr. Stanley's criticism of the ex-Governor.

Mr. Beckham discussed his own record as Governor, his approval of the McChord act, the issues in the Goebel campaign, and the condition of State finances under his administration.

He replied to the charge that he was employed as attorney for the L. & N. Railroad, by saying that the firm of Beckham & McQuown was local counsel in Frankfort for the road, and received less than $800 annually in fees, an employment which ceased January 1.

Mr. Beckham has announced two more speaking dates — Winchester, March 23, and Harrodsburg, April 6, county court day.
